Hahaha you "only America exists" people! Now see you getting at MY research proposal with that FOIA of yours!

Anyway, as a pre-emptive step taken many years ago against the possibility that someone like you might one day figure out how to spell FOIA in Canadian, my own proposals etc have been posted since long at <http://www.math.toronto.edu/~drorbn/Profile/index.html>. If you want even more direct access to my (mostly worthless) thoughts, go to <http://katlas.math.toronto.edu/drorbn/AcademicPensieve/>.

Best,

Dror.
